

Liz: Thanks Peter. It's new. What do you think? Does it suit me?

Peter: Yes, its the perfect color for you.

Liz: I decided that it's time for a new coat. My other clothes are for the winter, and I end up getting too hot, now that it is spring.

Peter: I know what you mean. The weather changes a lot; sometimes the wind is quite cold, and then the next thing you know, it's sunny.

Liz: Exactly. That's why I bought this jacket. It's a wind blocker, and it's light. I can have more layers of clothing underneath.

Peter: I didn't know you were so fashionable, Liz!
